Contact: Neal Fredrickson
fredr175@umn.edu

DAY 1

8:00am  Welcome
• Brief participant and host introductions
• Housekeeping: “How can we help you get comfortable and ready for the course?”

Introduction to Food Defense
• What is food defense and why is it important for us to think about it?
• Intentional Adulteration = Crime

Characterizing the Global Food System
• Supply chain dynamics and complexities, and the risks/vulnerabilities therein

10:00am  Historical Evolution of Food Defense

11:00am  Cyber Security and Food Defense

12:00pm  Lunch

12:30pm  Roles of Partner Stakeholders
• Who else is in the fight and what are their roles?
• Regulators, industry, academia (FIDES), Labs (FERN/LRN), others

1:30pm  Food Defense Policy

3:00pm  Subject Matter Expert Guest Speaker II
• Tailored to specific needs and objectives of the audience

4:00pm  Primer for Field Trip
• Details needed to prepare for the field trip on day 2

4:30pm  Adjourn

DAY 2

8:00am  Welcome, Day 1 Recap
        Criticality and Risk Assessments

9:00am  Subject Matter Expert Guest Speaker III
        •  Tailored to specific needs and objectives of the audience

10:00am Economically Motivated Adulteration

11:00am Food Industry Perspective, Building Food Defense Plans

12:00pm Lunch

12:30pm Transport to Field Trip

2:00pm  Field Trip
        •  Tailored to specific needs and objectives of the audience

4:00pm  Return from Field Trip, Adjourn

DAY 3

8:00am  Welcome, Day 2 Recap

8:45am  Subject Matter Expert Guest Speaker IV
        •  Tailored to specific needs and objectives of the audience

11:00am Group Discussion and Conceptual Recap
        •  New Questions
        •  Topics of interest for further discussion

12:00pm Lunch

12:30pm Recovery & Consequence Management

2:00pm  Final Culminating Practical Exercise

4:30pm  Adjourn